SIR,

Grant of 3 months' Privilege leave to Mr. L. Ramakrishna Rao, Principal of the Ayurvedic and Unani College, Mysore.

Adverting to correspondence ending with your letter No.1164/MCZ. 201-33-5 dated 26-2-1934, I have the honor to state that Mr. L. Ramakrishna Rao has renewed his application for 3 months' privilege leave on account of urgent private affairs.

2. The Vice President of Ayurvedic and Unani College, Mysore, states that as Mr. L. Ramakrishna Rao has been working in the College for the past 5 years, it is desirable to give him a change, both in the interests of the institution and of himself, and suggests the appointment of Mr. A. Seetharama Sastry.

3. The Senior Surgeon, whose opinion was called for, states in his letter dated 6-3-1935 (copy enclosed) that he agrees with the College Committee that Mr. Seetharama Sastry who has been working in the Medical Department these 5 years and who has gained experience, would be a suitable person to be in charge of the institution. He is a Medical graduate and an Ayurveda Vidwan. I therefore request that the leave applied for by Mr. Ramakrishna Rao may be sanctioned and that he may be allowed to revert to the Medical Department on expiry of the leave. He may be permitted to draw a salary of Rs.360/ plus Rs.50/- during the leave period. As recommended by the Vice President and the Senior Surgeon, Mr. A Seetharama Sastry may be appointed as Principal of the College on the present pay plus an al-allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem on probation in the first instance. The Vice President has been requested to permit Mr. L. Ramakrishna Rao to proceed on leave only on relief by Mr. Seetharama Sastry.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Agricultural Commissioner.

Letter No.C.1095-1 dated 6-3-35 from the Secretary to Government of Mysore to the Muzrai Commissioner at Mysore.

In acknowledging receipt of your letter No. [illegible] dated 7-3-35, I have the honor to propose a suitable officer for the Ayurvedic and Unani College, in place of Mr. L. Ramakrishna Rau who has applied for 3 months' [illegible], I have the honor to state that the only other suitable officer for the post is the Principal is Mr. Seetharama Sastri, M.R.A.S. I am, in this connection, to invite reference to G.O.No.338-30/Muz.27-34-2 dated 10-8-1930 by which Mr. Seetharama Sastry who was then working in the Ayurvedic [illegible] may be appointed as a Medical Probationer against the sub-[illegible] caused in the Medical Department by the transfer of Mr. Ramakrishna Rao to the Ayurvedic College. When Mr. Ramakrishna Rao reverts to the [illegible] after the expiry of the leave, as suggested by the Committee, there will be no place for Mr. Seetharama Sastry in the Medical Department and he will have therefore to be reverted to the Ayurvedic and Unani College.

I may note that Mr. Seetharama Sastri has been working in the [illegible] partment these 5 years and has gained considerable professional experience.

I therefore agree with the Committee that Mr. Seetharama Sastry would be a suitable person to be in charge of the institution.
